Kanko Haboro (YouTube Video)
Enjoy footage featuring the pristine nature of Teuri and Yagishiri

It was so refreshing to slow down and enjoy nature at the yew forest and surrounding pastures.
Shhh! The ferry rocked the kids sound asleep.

A designated natural monument, this island has a rare stand of primeval yew trees on one side. The other side is dominated by green pastureland for Suffolk sheep. At the ferry terminal you can find meals and lodging, or rent a bicycle.

Everyone should try it once! Yagishiri Suffolk Mutton

Stand of primeval Yew
The yew trees here grow low to the ground in an adaptation to wind and weather.
